Notification No. 9013, dated 7th April 1909.

Notice of sale in the Bowringpet Taluk, for a period of 3 years, commencing 1st July 1909 and ending 30th June 1912, of licenses for the sale of Foreign Liquors in Refreshment Rooms in which the sale of liquor is ordinarily combined with the supply of meals or eatables prepared and served in the European manner.

I. Notice is hereby given that the privilege of selling Foreign Liquor under the licenses mentioned in the subjoined schedule during the three years, beginning 1st July 1909 and ending 30th June 1912, will be put up to public auction by Deputy Commissioners or Revenue Assistant Commissioners or District Officers of the Excise Department or other officers specially authorized by the Deputy Commissioners for the purpose on the date and at the place mentioned in the schedule, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth. If the sales are not completed on the dates fixed, they will be continued on the next following days, close holidays excepted.

II. A deposit of Rs. 20 must be made by each bidder previous to bidding and will be received by the selling officer on the day of sale.

III. The shops will be put up to auction at an upset price of Rs. 150 per annum. If there are no bids for or above the upset price the privilege shall not be sold and no Refreshment Room License of the kind shall be issued.

IV. Every shop should, as a rule, be sold independently.

V. No person will be allowed to bid for another unless he holds a Power-of-Attorney from the latter.

VI. No shops will be knocked down in the name of two or more persons unless they represent a duly recognized Company or firm by means of a Power-of-Attorney. The selling officer shall refuse to register as a purchaser any one in whose name the bidding has not proceeded.

VII. The officer conducting the sale may, at his discretion, refuse to accept the bid of any person on the ground that it is too low or that he has been convicted by a Criminal Court or has previously been guilty of such a breach of the conditions of a license or of a contract under the Excise Regulation or Opium Act, as to render him undesirable as a holder of a license or on the ground that he is insolvent or to prevent arrangements to the detriment of Government interests or for any other valid reason. He may also refuse any bid which he may consider to be purely speculative after recording his reasons for doing so.

VIII. The shops will be knocked down to the highest bidder, but the sale will be subject to formal confirmation by the Deputy Commissioner, who shall be at liberty to accept or reject any bid at his discretion. Such formal confirmation will be tantamount to an acceptance of the bid unless revised by the Government for special reasons and will be necessary whether the sale be held by the Deputy Commissioner himself or by any officer appointed by him.

IX. In case of dispute the selling officer's decision shall be final; and if for any reason the highest bid is rejected the next highest shall be taken or the shop re-sold at his discretion.

X. Tenders after auction shall not generally be accepted. Shops remaining unsold at the first auction shall ordinarily be disposed of by re-auction later on. But the Deputy Commissioner has full discretion on this point.

XI. At the close of each day's sale, the deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them. As the auction proceeds, each person whose bid is accepted shall at once, if so required by the selling officer, or otherwise at the close of the day's sale, make a further deposit of two months' rent (in addition to the deposit made under condition II) for each shop unless the initial deposit equals or exceeds six months' rent. Should he fail to do so, the deposit made by him under condition II will be forfeited and the shops will be put up again immediately to auction by the selling officer on the above conditions or otherwise disposed of by the Deputy Commissioner and the defaulter will be debarred from bidding again for the same or for any other shop.

XII. Persons to whom shops have been knocked down and who have made deposits as provided in conditions II and XI shall leave their address with the selling officer, in order that the confirmation of the sale may be communicated to that address by a notice and they shall also deposit* such further sum as with the former deposits will make up six months' rent. Such deposit should be paid into the Taluk Treasury within seven days from the date of communication of the notice of the Deputy Commissioner's acceptance of the bid by its presentation to themselves or to any adult male member of their family at the place of the said address, or by its despatch duly registered by post. They shall then without unnecessary delay execute the necessary engagements and take out licenses on the conditions hereinafter set forth. In the case of the purchaser's death after signing the agreement, it will be binding on his heirs and assigns. Should the initial deposit exceed the sum required to be deposited under this condition, the excess will be refunded unless the purchaser is required to make a deposit (twice that sum) under condition XIII infra.

XIII. If on enquiry subsequent to sale the purchaser shall be found to be of doubtful solvency or a foreigner having no sufficient property in the Mysore State, he may be required either to deposit twice the sum prescribed in condition XII supra or to get a surety or sureties, residents of and possessing sufficient property in the Mysore State to execute a security bond for the due payment of all moneys that may become due by him under the terms of the contract. The bond shall be stamped (Article 32 of Schedule I of the Mysore Stamp Regulation, II of 1900) and also registered at the expense of the purchaser if the amount secured exceeds Rs. 1,000.

XIV. As soon as the sales are over, the sale conducting officer shall forward a list of the successful bidders to the Amildar of the taluk concerned who shall enquire into the solvency of and record the amount of deposit or surety required from each purchaser. He should submit the list so prepared to the selling officer within five days of its receipt and the latter should submit the same with his remarks to the Deputy Commissioner for confirmation without delay.

XV. On the failure of any person to make deposit under condition XII or to comply with the requisition under condition XIII supra or to execute engagements and take out licenses as aforesaid, the deposits already made shall be forfeited and the shop be re-sold or otherwise disposed of at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner.

XVI. Re-sales effected under condition XV will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain, and, in the event of loss, will be required to make good the deficiency between the total amount payable for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale. In the latter case the forfeited deposits will be deducted from the loss arising from the re-sale, and the remainder, if any, will be recoverable from the defaulter in the same manner as if it were an arrear of land revenue. Should, however, the forfeited deposits be greater than the loss by re-sale, the whole of such deposits will be credited to Government. The defaulting bidder will be similarly liable if the privilege is disposed of otherwise than by re-sale and such disposal results in loss to Government as compared with the original sale.

XVII. The purchaser of the privilege is liable to the penalties prescribed for breaches of the conditions set forth below, though a formal license may not have been issued to him.

XVIII. The deposit referred to in condition XII or condition XIII, as the case may be, will be taken as security for the due performance of the conditions of the license. If the Deputy Commissioner and the licensee so agreed, it may be credited towards the last instalment of the khists payable by the latter.

XIX. The licenses issued under the above clauses will contain the following general conditions; and the special conditions prescribed below:—

13. The Deputy Commissioners may order the transfer of Depôts and shops from one locality to another provided the distance is not more than two hundred yards or the closure of the same. But no new shops shall be opened except with the previous sanction of the Excise Commissioner.

14. The right is reserved to the Deputy Commissioner to grant "Occasional licenses" for the sale of liquor, intoxicating drugs and opium, on the occurrence of fairs, festivals, etc., in places in the vicinity of which there are no regularly licensed shops. Such licenses shall ordinarily be granted to the shop-keepers who usually supply the locality or to the representatives of the renter. 19. No liquor, intoxicating drug or opium shall be sold in shops except for cash.
